

Afternoon Seminar Competency and International Minerals Reporting

COMMITTEE FOR MINERAL RESERVES INTERNATIONAL REPORTING STANDARDS

www.minsouth.org.uk

This afternoon seminar presents a unique opportunity to learn from leading members of CRIRSCO, as well as invited keynote speakers. The seminar is designed to be interactive and will focus on Competent Person accreditation requirements around the world for public reporting of Exploration Results, Mineral Resources and Mineral Reserves. It will be particularly relevant for technical professionals, including geologists, engineers and metallurgists, responsible for writing and contributing to international minerals reporting. It may also be of interest to those procuring the services of Competent Persons and those setting standards and benchmarks for competency through education and professional development of technical professionals. As part of its ongoing commitment to education and professional development in the mining industry, this seminar is generously sponsored by MinSouth, with support from IOM3.

About CRIRSCO

CRIRSCO (Committee for Mineral Reserves International Reporting Standards) was formed in 1994 under the auspices of the Council of Mining and Metallurgical Institutes (CMMI). It is a grouping of representatives of organisations that are responsible for developing mineral reporting codes and guidelines in Australasia (JORC), Canada (CIM), Chilean Mining Commission, Europe (PERC) South Africa (SAMREC) and the USA (SME).

The international initiative of CRIRSCO is to Standardise market related reporting definitions for mineral resources and mineral reserves, with the primary objective of developing a set of International standard definitions for the reporting of mineral resources and mineral reserves.

More information on CRIRSCO and CRIRSCO members can be found at www.crirSCO.com.

CRIRSCO is supported by and is a strategic partner of ICMM.
